BAREFOOT DANCING.

The New York Telegraph has bestowed a $5 prize for this:

"Mother, may I go out to dance
And on that limb of hickory
Hang up my shoes and stockings ere
I try to woo Terpsichore?
I'll then be free to dance about
With classical agility,
And imitate the dancing of
The ladies of nobility."
"But why go barefoot, daughter mine?
And why sport propriety?
"Because it is the latest thing
In high New York society.
I must go barefoot, mother, dear,
Like girls in Patagonia;
Appendicitis has gone out—
The fad is now pneumonia!"

Christian Scientists in Lexington are aroused over a sermon delivered at the First Baptist Church a few evenings since by Rev. J. W. Porter. Dr. Porter said it was absurd to think that Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy should set herself up as one to be followed by the faithful, as she was not worthy, religiously or morally. He also ridiculed the faith cure.

THE prosecution of the Standard Oil Company has thus far ignominiously failed in the object sought, i. e., the dissolution of the biggest Oil Trust in the world. There is much that could be written of the oil question on both sides, and the arguments would not entirely condemn Mr. ROCKEFELLER'S great concern. There are also many little companies and scoundrels who are worse, if anything, than the big ones. For instance, in the large cities the big coal companies sell coal at an average of say 11 cents per bushel at the yards, yet we'll venture to say that in Cincinnati and its environs there are 100,000 poor people who pay 20 cents for every bushel they consume, because they are compelled to buy it of the retail coal sharks who peddle the black diamonds from wagons, give short weight and poor measure to nine out of ten customers. The suffering of millions of poor people in the large cities is horribly augmented every winter by the thieving grafters who retail coal. Think of the thousands, aye, millions, of human beings who shiver from cold all winter and are glad to have money to purchase 10 cents' worth of coal and a cent's worth of kindling to keep themselves from freezing to death.

Do the Rockefeller oil wagons, which retail oil and gasoline in every country on the globe and deliver the blessed product to our very doors, we ask, do they oppress the poor people? It is said that the Standard Oil Company crushes out the small competitor and thus monopolizes the trade, but does it?

There is no sentiment in business, and the Standard Oil Company is merely doing what you and I and all of us are trying to do—push its business. There is a large amount of tommyrot about the "damnable machinations of the Standard Oil Trust and the Tobacco Trust," but considering things in the light of certain circumstances that have eventuated in old Kentucky and many other States during the past year or two, we venture to say that there are many men and many concerns besides the Standard Oil Company and the American Tobacco Company who deserve to be stretching hemp or looking through the bars of the Penitentiary if they had their just desserts.

BEING an ex-President don't make a molly-coddle of Mr. ROOSEVELT. Prof. STARR of Chicago says that Mr. ROOSEVELT may die on his African trip, that the climate will prove more deadly than the animals. Being asked, "What have you to say regarding the dispute?"

"Nothing," answered Mr. ROOSEVELT. "I shall leave the issue with STARR and ACRELY, so let them figure it out."

KNOCKING OUT CHARLIE'S ASTIGMATISM.

The following story is going the rounds: A grade teacher, after having a medical examination in her room, recently wrote the following note to the parent of a certain little boy:

"Your little boy, Charles, shows signs of astigmatism. Will you please investigate and take steps to correct it" to which she received a note in reply, saying: "I don't understand exactly what Charles has been doing, but I have wholoped him tonight and you can wholop him tomorrow, and that ought to help some."

"A SON OF A GUN FROM LEWIS COUNTY"

The Vanceburg Editor Gets on His Ear and Defends Native Booze Fighters

"Uncle Hiram of Fleming" Also Has a Few Ter Say

A drunken fellow, astride a horse, galloped through Second street in the East End yesterday afternoon flourishing a revolver in a reckless manner and yelling in a wild Indian fashion. His action created consternation among pedestrians passing along the street, who fled for safety in fear of their lives. He evidently belonged in the upper part of Mason or Lewis county.—MAYSVILLE LEDGER.

Is that so? Well, we have a few citizens in Lewis county that would answer to that description all right, but we haven't all of them by any means and the rest of them are not located in the upper end of Mason county, either. In fact, you will find as many desperadoes to the square inch in the city limits of Maysville as in any other part of Kentucky. A lot of Mason county people, including the Editor of THE LEDGER, seem to think that Lewis countians wear horns, but we would call their attention to the fact we are not barn burners and night riders up this way, neither was there ever a human being burned at the stake in Lewis county. We don't claim to be perfect but we are willing to stand our record up by the side of that of Mason county any old day.—Vanceburg Sun.

Now, don't that G. A. R. ye? The Editor of THE PUBLIC LEDGER never wrote the article mentioned, which has been the innocent cause of so much ink-slinging. It was written by the Local Reporter, but the "Chief Guy" stands for it, as he is glad to stand for everything turned out in this print-shop. However, we fail to see why Brer, Wilson of The Sun should take exceptions to it and utter such an assertion as:

"A lot of Mason county people, including The Editor of THE LEDGER, seem to think that Lewis countians wear horns," etc.

Our article said the fellow was from the "upper part of Mason or Lewis county." Mason county has a lot of these kind of cattle and they ain't confined to the mountain knobs, either. Many of them, and some of them the worst booze fighters on earth, reside on fine Bluegrass farms. But the bewhiskered mountain beast, whether he lives in Lewis or Mason county or hails from Breathitt or any old place, doesn't necessarily have to come to Maysville to tank up.

Gentlemen, from the first to the steenth degree of good breeding and gentility, have a habit of liking to visit Maysville. They just like Mayville and naturally they can't help it. It's a great old burg and Mayville whiskey has a world-wide reputation of being the real goods—the "Best on Earth," and then some.

As to Mayville's propensity for "burning Negroes, barn burners and night riders," we do not think any portion of Kentucky can claim a monopoly of these accomplishments, and the chronicles of "the State of Lewis" would reveal some of the most disgusting as well as some of the most heinous crimes ever committed.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER utters no word of scandal or disparagement against the good people of Lewis county as a whole. Her yeomanry are among the salt of the earth in sterling citizenship, and as to Lewis county having a monopoly of drunken thugs and booze-fighting desperadoes, perish the thought—Mason also "has a few." But this thing of jumping on Mayville and blaming Mayville whiskey for being the cause of all the crimes committed within a 50-mile radius is getting to be "shop talk" of the fellows who like to shout in the temperance cause and reflect discredit upon Mayville and all her people, simply because this city is the sole remaining diggings in this part of the earth that intoxicating liquors are sold. A "booze fighter" in any shape is an undesirable citizen, but the most intollerable limit of a nuisance is the bewhiskered and lopeared cusses who hail from "the upper part of Mason and the lower portion of Lewis" and from the sacred prohibition precincts of old Fleming, Nicholas, Robertson, Bracken, Brown and Adams, and 'steen other so-called dry counties, who make regular weekly pilgrimages to Mayville simply to fill up and tank up and get roaring drunk and then try to tear up the town because they've bought a quart or two of red liquor.

The truth is, Mayville is not to blame for the boozing. This class of booze fighters will have their liquor even if they have to go to b— to get it.

THE LEDGER is not making a defense of whiskey drinking. No one can do that and the evils resulting therefrom are too awful and too apparent to offer any excuse or palliation for it. But we claim that prohibition and local option mean only "free whiskey" and that there never will be a solution of the curse of drink. The best that can be done is by high license regulation and the most sensible laws which do not encroach upon a man's personal liberty.

And our esteemed friend, Brer Duley of The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat, glories in the opportunity offered to swat Mayville whiskey and to take a crack at the entire boozing universe. Brer Duley quotes THE LEDGER item—

"A drunken fellow, astride a horse, galloped through Second street in the East End yesterday afternoon flourishing a revolver in a reckless manner and yelling in a wild Indian fashion. His actions created consternation among pedestrians passing along the street, who fled for safety in fear of their lives. He evidently belonged in the upper part of Mason or Lewis county"

And says— "Where" the fellow came from is of less importance than "where" the whiskey came from which transformed him into a demon. But, of course, Mayville furnished it.

And the next day the Northfork was as high as a cat's back.

Uncle Hiram, our reply to your strictures is embodied in what we have to say in answer to Brer, Wilson.

Will you two fellows come down and have "one" on us before the lights are out on Market street and the "State-widens" get in their work?"

The presents were numerous and beautiful and attested the popularity of the bride and groom.

THIRD OPERATION PREVENTED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. I had already had two operations, and they wanted me to go through a third one. I suffered day and night from inflammation and a small tumor, and never thought of seeing a well day again. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured."—MRS. ALVINA SPERLING, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Danderine

GROWS HAIR and we can PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes: "As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture and nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

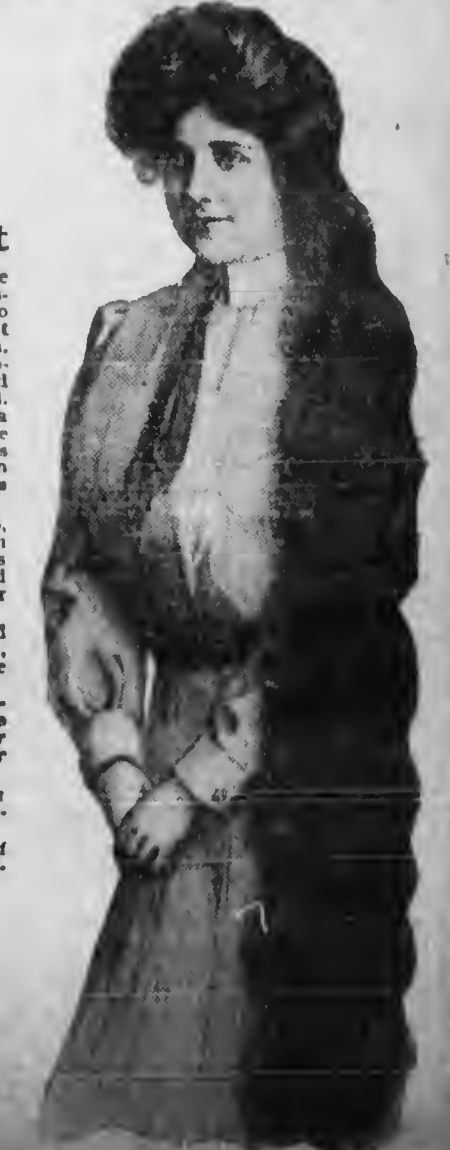

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpelde on Account of Its Disinfectiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelde speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it always that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpelde effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpelde stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

STANDARD WINS

The Big Landis Fine Fades to Zero and Oil Company Goes Acquit

Federal Judge Anderson at Chicago yesterday handed down instructions to the Jury trying the famous $29,240,000 Standard Oil case to find the Company not guilty.

Arguments for a new trial were heard in May, and a motion for a new trial was denied. On August 3d, 1907, Judge Landis imposed his famous $29,240,000 fine.

Judge Anderson holds that the Government failed to show that there was a standard rate for oil shipments between Whiting, Ind., and East St. Louis at the time of the offenses alleged and that the defendants knowingly accepted a lower secret rate. The Judge has closely adhered to the rulings of the Court of Appeals, which overthrew the verdict of Judge Landis.

The prosecution, which ended in failure, had its beginning August 27th, 1906.

CURED TO STAY CURED.

How a Maysville Citizen Found Complete Freedom From Kidney Troubles.

If you suffer from backache—
From urinary disorders—
From any disease of the kidneys,
Be cured to stay cured.
Doan's Kidney Pills make lasting cures. Maysville people testify.
Here's one case of it:
M. C. Cleholm, 317 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"The cure which Doan's Kidney Pills effected in my case some years ago has been permanent, and the testimonial I gave in their favor still holds good. I was bothered a great deal by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions, this being especially annoying at night, when I was obliged to arise several times. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and had only used them a short time when I noticed a marked improvement. They soon cured me, and I have learned of several instances where they have been used with good results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Are You in the Market for Your Spring Outfit?

You may not think of it, but it does make a difference to you who makes the clothes you wear, especially if the maker is willing to tell you what he makes them of and how. That's one thing we like about the Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Ederheimer, Stein & Co. clothes. (Both these lines confined to us.) They are made of strictly all-wool fabrics, and the makers seem to want everybody to know it. They advertise the fact extensively. It's the most important fact about the clothes. There are plenty of good-looking clothes for sale that are not all-wool; the makers don't claim they are. They don't say much about it. We like to sell clothes that our customers can be positive about, goods that you don't have to take anybody's word for, clothes you know are good. They are easy to sell and a satisfaction to everybody.
